- Medline – use this to find general medical articles, including material on drugs and pharmacology
Books

To search for print and e-books go to the online library catalogue here: link to the library Catalogue. You can search by author, title, keyword and subject.

E-books

Increasingly you will come across e-books in the library catalogue. To access e-books you will need your OpenAthens username and password. Most e-books have a straightforward link to follow whilst some e-book suppliers require you to electronically “check out” books. If you experience any problems please contact the library on 01946 523826 (WCH issue desk) or 01228 814879 (CIC issue desk) and a member of staff will talk you through it. We also have a video guide to accessing E-books.
